GREAT DAY FOR FAVORITES

FIRST CHOICES ALL BUT SWEEP THE CARD AT JAMESTOWN TRACK.

Virginians Well Pleased with the Racing as Meeting Nears Its Close-My Gal's Victory Followed by First Run-Up of the Meeting.

Norfolk, Va., November 17.—Favorites all but swept the card at Jamestown this afternoon. Montalm was the only first choice that failed to deliver the goods, but the winner in his race, King Avondale, was by no means neglected and went to the post a well-backed second choice. Four of the races furnished close and exciting finishes. There was more snap to the sport than usual and those present were evidently well pleased, as the winners were greeted with much enthusiasm. It looks as if the management did a wise thing in deciding not to extend the meeting. The townsfolk are well pleased with the racing, but another week of the sport probably would cause it to drag. The first run-up of the meeting came after My Gal won the fourth race, with J. W. Pangle doing the boosting. The filly was run up $200 over her entered price of $500, but was protected and bought in. The improvement shown by My Gal was responsible for the run-up and the inference is that trainer Burttschell probably advised some to wager on her in her previous effort, when she ran a poor race. The first claim of the meeting also occurred after Montcalm was beaten in the fifth race. J. W. Flynn, trainer for Forrest Rose, took the son of Rockton for $1,355$.

The opening dash resulted in an easy victory for the heavily backed Patrick S., which won in a cauter from Superstition. Aldivia's performance was a poor one, the finish finding her last of her field. Horicon beat Flying Squirrel a short head after a stirring stretch drive. This pair raced head and head throughout the last quarter, and in the final test Horicon proved the gamer.

Rumors that Judge Cronin would not run his race and that jockey Hughes had been approached, left he stewards to interview Hughes before he went to the post. He was told that he would be expected to produce the party who had approached him, and was given until temorrow to ascertain his name. When it came to the running ofte frace Hughes made no mistakes and made every jump a winning one. Judge Cronin would not run his race an drew away into an easy lead and had plenty in reserve at the end.

Bavid Dunlop announced that he would ship the horses he is racing here to Petersburg. Va., to go into winter quarters. John W. Pangle will sever his connection with Mr. Dunlop at the conclusion of the meeting. Mr. Pangle has had great success with the Dunlop horses. He developed the smart two-year-old. Master John, and won some fifty races for the Virginia turfman last year. Mr. Dunlop has arranged with Theodore Coles to handle his horses in the fature. Mr. Pangle has gathered together a small stable which he will ship to Jacksonville. They include Sebastian, French Girl of Mr. Dunlop this morning for $200. It is said that Hugh Penny will succeed Theodore Coles as trainer for C. C. Smithson.

PLENTY OF ACTION AT OAKLAND.

Concerning the opening of the racing season at Oaktand last Saturday, the San Francisco Chronicle makes the following comment:

"Race-goers had plenty of opportunity to support their favorites in the betting ring. Eleven layers of olds were stationed about the outskirts of the enclosure and the players made the ring stir with their speculative operations. While last season one could only bet orally with a layer and bad, therefore, to be known, a stranger at the course Saturday had little or no trouble registering his wager. Each of the fourteen layers was surrounded by five to six stakeholders, and all that was necessary to be done in order to back one's choice was to place his money at the posted odds with the stakeholder and collect the same after the race if it so happened that he was lucky. As for the layer, he was assisted by several clerks who kept account of the bets secretly. No tickets or records were made in the transaction of the wagers, but the betting was carried on almost as easily and briskly as when the bookmakers stood on their boxes with chalk and lickets.

the bookmakers stood on their boxes with chalk and tickets.

"Judge Carroll Cook, counsel for the New California Jockey Club, addressed the gathering of players and layers in the betting ring before the first race and announced the conditions under which betting would be allowed. He emphasized that the stakeholder system of wagering had been proven legal in the courts, but warned the bettors that any open betting with the layers with a duly made record of the same would not be allowed by the jockey club. This talk of Judge Cook's seemed wholly unnecessary, however, as the players were well versed in the system of betting, and George H. Smith, the ringmaster, reported that not a complaint was made during the day."

HORSES WORKING FAST AT JUAREZ.

El Paso. Tex.. November 17.—With the opening of the second amual meeting of the Jockey Club Juarez near at hand, the city of El Paso has commenced to fill up with visitors and horsemen. At the track the horses are being sent along at a good clip, fast work-outs being the rule. Halves in 49 and miles in 1:42 are not uncommon, showing the track to be lightning fast.

The card for the opening day will consist of six high-class races with a total value of $4.100, the feature being La Independencia Handicap, value $2.900, distance one and an eighth miles. While the entries for this stake are not numerous, from the class of horses entered a most interesting contest may be expected. Prominent among the entries for this event are Jack Atkin, Cherryola, Helmet, Tuboo and Glorio.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Eugene S., Cincinnati, O. Necessarily the bet was a draw. A backer has right to a run for his wager by the horse he bets on.

II. S. W.. Chicago. At the track you will find all changes or corrections of weights, and also over weights, published on a bulletin board before the races.

E. L. M.. Detroit, Mich. On the basis of your statement of the case the bookmaker should pay on Heatherbroom. He has no right to take advantage of his own mistake.

LIVELY SELLING RACE DOINGS.

Run-Ups Follow Finish of Three Races at Oakland-Jack Paine in Great Form.

San Francisco, Cal., November 17.—Jack Paine scored an easy victory in the Yo Tambien Haudicap at Oakland today. Daddy Gip, the favorite for the race, made most of the rauming, but when the final furlong was reached. Jack Paine, which is in great form, passed him without trouble to win going away. Coppertown was third.

Three of the winners of selling races were bid up. After Pawhuska led his field home in the second race, he was advanced from $600 to $1.100 and bought by W. Gabriel. C. P. Lamar figured prominently by bidding up Colonel Jack from $500 to $500 and Sepulveda from $300 to $705. Both of these horses were retained, Early Wright, owner of Pawhuska claimed Ossabar for $800.

A feature of the sport was the sensational showing made by Sepulveda. The McManus colt dwelt at the start of the fifth race, but Jockey Archibald made up his ground gradually and, riding a powerful finish, got his mount up to win by a head from Sir Edward.

Garner again came into the limelight by riding two winners.

Edward Whyte, en route from Toronto, telegraphed from Omaha that he will arrive Saturday with the R. J. Mackenzie string.

Jockey Eddie Dugan, who planned to be here this week, has wired his brother that he will wait in the east until he learns whether August Belmont will race a stable at any winter track.

Roscoe Coleman, a former jockey who rode for Burns & Waterhouse here and in New York when Charles Patterson trained the string, committed suicide in an Oakland lodging house today. He retired from the saddle some years ago and had been clerking in an insurance office of late.

M. Crimmins, a boy who rode on the New York racks some seasons ago, is here with William Carroll, who is handling the big string of horses running in the name of George W. Berry, manager of A. B. Spreckels' Napa Stock Farm.

The yearlings that Earl Linnell brought to the coast included the following: Bay colt by Inflexible—Golden Locks; bay colt by Inflexible—Golden Locks; bay colt by Inflexible—Golden Locks; bay colt by Inflexible—Golden Loc

NOTES OF THE TURF.

C. R. Ellison has returned to Chicago from Latonia and will go to Jacksonville for the winter.

Arthur N. Elvod, who is to have charge of the ring at Moncreif Park, has reached Jacksonville.

The Valet, owned by Louis Winans, won the rac for the Allestree Plate of 250 sovereigns at Derby Eng., yesterday.

Frank D. Weir and former jockey W. P. Kucher will ship their horses at the close of the Latonia meeting to Jacksonville.

Recent arrivals at Jacksonville include Capt. J. Williams, E. F. Cooney, W. F. A. Mulholland A. Simons and John Miller. Harry Froelich, a well-known Pacific coast book maker and racing owner, died last week at Napa, Cal. He had operated on the coast for nearly a score of years.

J. W. May has received from the east a yearling filly that he left at Sheepshead Bay when he shipped to Kentucky last summer. He will take twenty-four horses to Jacksonville.

W. L. Haynes of Denver has written to the Ken-tucky State Racing Commission for a copy of the Kentucky law creating the commission, with the idea of securing identical legislation in Colorado.

King George will extend a share of his support to Irish racing next season, and with that object several of his majesty's yearlings will shortly join Mr. Lushington's stable at Conyngham Lodge, Curragh, where Ambush II. was trained for the late King Edward.

belonging to other owners.

An occurrence probably without a parallel in racing was recorded at the Birmingham, England, meeting on November 1, when three of the six races on the card resulted in dead heats. Frank Wootton and Danny Maher, rivals for the leadership, were the riders in one of the dead heats. Wootton and C. Trigg fought out another, and the third was between Trigg and an apprentice named Winter. One of the races was for two-year-olds, and could not be run off under the rules, and in the other cases the owners agreed to divide.

FOUR HUNDRED HORSES AT MONCREIF.

Jacksonville, Fla., November 17.—Another lot of horses arrived at Moncreif Park this afternoon. In this lot were the horses of W. V. Conran from Buf falo, where they have been rested. The horses of Mode Nicoll will arrive in the morning. There are now over 400 horses at the local track.

James Milton, who is to be the patrol judge this scason, arrived today from New York, where he has been since the Baltimore meeting closed. Judge Murphy is looked for tomorrow, while starter Dade Murphy is looked for tomorrow, while starter Dade will be here on Monday.

The hotels are filling up rapidly and many layers are already on the ground. The work on the track has been completed and everything is virtually in readiness for the opening of the meeting. The track is fast and presents a busy sight each morning with the working of those being prepared here for the meeting.

Catroke, which was blistered and turned out after the Fort Erie meeting, has been taken up again and is in active training.

LEXINGTON SHIPMENTS TO WINTER TRACKS.

Lexington, Ky., November 17.—Henry McDaniel left here today for Juarez with twenty-two horses belonging to R, L. Thomas, George C. Bennett and others. The shipment included Loween, Shot, Quieksilver, Light Wool, Lady Stalwart, Polls, Oblivion, Clay. Eleanor Stribling and thirteen yearlings, Among the latter are brothers to Cohort, Adoration and Chenault, a half-brother to Firestone and a sister to John Carroll.

Charles Oxx shipped eight yearlings and Irving H. Wheateroft five, among the latter being the muchtalked-of King Broomstick and a brother to Grapple. They will join the special from Latonia to Juarez at Louisville tomorrow.

W. J. Young sent over to Latonia five yearlings, two of them by Broomstick and the property of C. L. Harrison to join the string that he will ship to Jacksonville Saturday.

JACK ATKIN NEVER HEADED

BRILLIANT SON OF SAIN SCORES AN EASY STAKE VICTORY.

Rarney Schreiber Sees His Great Sprinter Win the Omnium Handicap at Latonia-Some Unsatisfactory Happenings Mar Day's Racing.

Cincinnati, O., November 17.—Barney Schreiber's Jack Atkin redeemed himself nobly by winning the omnium Handicap, which featured today's card at Latonia, in handy fashion over good opposition, including some fast juveniles with light imposts. The great Schreiber sprinter showed high speed throughout and held his opposition safe ail the way. He was aided by a flying start. Helmet was the runner-up at the end, with Star Charter in third place. The latter ran an exceptionally god race. He was away poorly and trailed distantly for the first quarter, but came with a sensational rush in the stretch and wore down Boca Grande. Follie Levy tried to run to the outside fence. She had much the worst of the continuous defeats of the first choices as a result of poor riding. C. Ross had the mounts on Bonnie Kelso and M. Cambon, outstanding favorites from the R. F. Carman stable, neither of which inished in the money. Bonnie Kelso ran in the handicap that preceded the stake race and was opposed by Milton B., Tom Bigbee and Leamence. He was conceding much weight to his opponents, but the consensus of opinion held that he was capable of doing it. Ross began a blundering ride on the first turn, where, in trying for a good position, he got the horse cut off. Interference followed at repeated intervals. Milton B. came away to win rather handily, while Tom Bigbee and Leamence fought it out for second place. Ross again rode poorly on M. Cambon and after the finish the judges called on him for an explanation. The jockey stated that M. Cambon tried to run out. He was given the benefit of the doubt, but was cautioned that unless he show decided improvement in his saddle work he may expect to find his opportunities for riding curtailed. Console was another that made a werehed showing in this race.

The day's disappointments began when Joyance were the benefit of the doubt, but was cautioned that unless he show decided improvement in his saddle work he may expect to find his opportunities for riding curtailed. Console was another that ma the winter near Louisville and resume as the context spring.

R. F. Carman disposed of six horses by auction in the paddock prior to the racing, their purchasers and the prices realized being as follows:

La Salle, F. D. Weir, $850.
Mark Antony II., J. S. Sheridan, $300.
Naughty Lad, W. O. Joplin, $800.
Question Mark, F. M. Kittleman, $1,800.
Stepfather, C. L. Fitzgerald, $210.
White Wool, W. F. Cisko, $1,600.

White Wool, W. F. Cisko, $1,600.
Arcite and Stare were also offered, but were ought in with bids of $600 and $1,250 respectively.
Other horses disposed of at the same sale were:
Admonitor, R. Dean, $90.
Pocotaligo, J. C. Ferriss, $450.
Rompie, C. W. Somers, $575.
Taina, J. Meyers, $50.
Tritoma, M. C. Grey, $105.
Zellwood, M. G. Thompson, $150.

Tritoma, M. C. Grey, $105.

Zellwood, M. G. Thompson, $150.

The three-horse winning combination, consisting of Jack Atkin, Queen Marguerite and Banbury, paid its backers $155.80 for $2.

John Fay, a well-known bookmaker, has been denied the privileges of the track. It is alleged that he was in the habit of sending away big commissions from the track.

John Walters has not as yet made up his mind on the wintering proposition. He thinks McIvor, his 1911 Kentucky Derby candidate, a promising three-year-old prospect, and is not so sure but that the good colt would do better next season with a winter's rest at Churchill Downs or at his Canadian home. The son of Sempronius has run several sparkling races here this fall and his performance in the Harold Stakes last summer, when he beat Governor Gray, was a high-class race. Mr. Walters believes that McIvor, as a three-year-old, will developinto a route-going colt, and it may be that the possession of such a promising three-year-old prospect will keep the former Hendrie trainer away from the winter tracks and cause him to rest his string during the cold weather.

Craven and the Wilbraham Plate at the First Spring meeting at Newmarket, and the Mersey Stakes at Liverpool in the summer. Once only has she been beaten, namely, when St. Nat was half a length too good for her in the Fifty-third Biennial Stakes at Ascot, when, however, Prince Palatine and other good two-year-olds were among her followers, but for some reason unknown to me she has not run since Liverpool. Among Joyner's other winners were Bibbin, by Meddler out of Handspun; Hillside, by Hamburg out of Morningside: Perseus, by Persimmon out of Urania; Pequot, by Hamburg out of Morningside: Perseus, out of Morningside: Artless, by Hamburg, out of Martha II.: Oversight, by Ballyhoo Bey out of Foget; Kiel, by Hamburg out of Regatta III.; the filly by Hamburg out of Blue Girl, the filly by Adam out of Sallie of Navarre; Hamilton, by Sandringham or Hamburg out of Fiesole; the filly by Adam out of Belle of Troy, and the gelding by Hamburg out of Belle of Troy, and the gelding by Hamburg out of Mineola, of which much was expected, but which is afflicted with a vile temper, has yet to make his first appearance in public, Mr. Whitney is a breeder on an extensive scale, there being nuwards of forty broodmares at his stud in New Jersey and five stallions, namiely, Hamburg, Broomstick, Ballyhoo Bey, Burgomaster and Sandringham, of which the last named was breed by his late Majesty King Edward."

RELMONT YEARLINGS REACH LONG ISLAND.

New York. November 17.—August Belmont's year-lings, sixteen in number, in charge of trainer Louis Feustel, have arrived at the Belmont private quarters opposite Belmont Park from Saratoga. They are, with the exception of one, Nursery-bred and, judging by appearances, the colors of the chairman of the Jockey Club are destined for high honors on the turk next season. The majority of the juveniles possess that individuality that betokens the horse of quality.

of the Jockey Club are destined for high honors on the turf next season. The majority of the juve niles possess that individuality that betokens the horse of quality.

Rock Sand is the sire of five colts and four fillies. His colts out of Beldame and Black Poplar are as handsome as one could wish to see. They are impressive fellows, both in the stall and on the track. Their trials on the Belmont grounds and over the Oklahoma course before leaving Saratoga Springs were surprisingly good.

Following are the names and pedigrees of the lot: Overman, b. c. by Rock Sand—Orienta, by Henry of Navarre. Half-brother to Okenite.

Belamour, ch. c, by Rock Sand—Beldame.

Black Rock, bik. c, by Rock Sand—Black Poplar.

Half-brother to Black Oak.

Golden Rock, b. c, by Rock Sand—Fairy Gold.

Half-brother to Fair Play.

Dance Spirit, br. f, by Rock Sand—Selina D.

Lucky Lass, b. f, by Ormondale—Lux Casta.

WOULD NOT RESTORE OLD WAYS.

"The Jockey Club does not advocate a repeal of the anti-bookmaking law by the new legislature at Alhany," said a well-posted racing man yesterday. "As a matter of fact the turf governors have well-comed the abolition of the bookmakers, so-called, but are going to make a fight to have the directors' liability law declared unconstitutional. The tracks were compelled to close after the Saratoga meeting because this law made the track owners liable to arrest and prosecution if any form of betting took place on their property. If the directors' law is knocked out, therefore, all the tracks will conduct meetings next year and the betting will take care of itself. It is not a crime to make a bet and under new conditions a certain form of speculation will be established by the courts. The days of slates, stools, sheets and cash boxes are gone forever.—New York Sun.

CARMAN RACERS AT BELMONT PARK.

New York, November 17.—Richard F. Carman now has a string of twenty-one horses stabled at Belmont Park, Recently a shipment of fifteen arrived from Saratoga. In the lot were Paradise Queen, Billiard Ball, Ace of Clubs, Nattle Bumppo and eleven yearlings. The youngsters were purchased at the sales held during the racing season at the Springs. They are by Inflexible. Orsini, Heno, Handspring and Golden Garter. There are several promising lookers among the collection, and their trials next spring will be watched with interest by horsemen. Semprolus, Meridian, The Turk, Achieve, Sir Cleges and The Follies make up the full list of Carman horses now at Belmont Park.

The Turk has been in retirement since the Empire City meeting. Mr. Carman intends to let The Turk ru out in a paddock during the winter months and it is hoped that this good colt will return to the races next year in his former good form.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

SIDNEY R., taken out of contention soon after the start, ran a good race. BOCA GRANDE ran a fast half, but suffered from interference and tired in the final drive. MARY DAVIS had no mishaps. FOLLIE LEVY was away too poorly to have a chance.

Scratched—92753*Friend Harry, 108; 92807*Edda, 100; 91465 Kingship, 104.

FIFTH RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. (86264—1:42%—4—104.) $400 added. 3-year olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $335.
